1897 Rte. 212
Quakertown PA 18951

Location

Our Center is conveniently located between Hellertown and Quakertown on Rte. 212. We are just a couple houses down the road from Springfield Elementary School.

Philosophy

Our center offers an enriched curriculum that focuses on supporting each child's unique characteristics. Our learning units are theme based to offer a variety of learning experience throughout the year. In addition, our learning lessons are based on individual observations and our content is directly linked to the Pennsylvania Learning Standards. Our curriculum also includes weekly Bible lessons to nurture and support strong Christian values. One of our primary goals is to support each family. Ultimately, we want our children to grow and become the very unique individual that they were born to be.

Faculty

All our staff are highly qualified individuals that have completed a full background check prior to employment. Our teaching staff are certified in Early Childhood Education or Elementary Education. All staff receive 30 credit hours of ongoing educational training per year. Our director has received The Pennsylvania Director's Credential in addition to her 4-year degree in education. We are also proud members of American Christian Schools International and participate in the Pennsylvania Keystone Stars Program.

Hours: 6:30 am to 5:50 pm

School Calendar

Our school year begins in September and continues throughout the entire year. Our curriculum is a little less structured during the summer months, but there is just enough structure to keep everyone in the swing of school. Our enrollment period is generally during the spring or fall; however, we accept late enrollments provided we have space.
